Barnsdall Arts in conjunction with the MAK Center for Art & Architecture invite the Los Angeles creative community for a benefit to support Barnsdall Arts.

For over four decades, Barnsdall Arts/FOJAC, a non-profit organization, has provided outstanding arts education programs and exhibitions to underserved communities throughout Los Angeles. We serve over 190,000 children and adults annually.

Join us at the famed MAK Center: a constellation of modern buildings designed by architect R. M. Schindler in 1922 in West Hollywood. Ticket price also includes entry to Shelter or Playground, a group exhibition based on The House of Dust, a seminal yet under-recognized late 1960s work by Fluxus artist Alison Knowles.

Tickets are tax deductible. If you cannot attend please consider donating at our website: barnsdallarts.org
